SeaWorld Salutes Veterans and their Families with Free Park Admission for Military Appreciation Month

Active-Duty U.S. Military and Families Can Also Enjoy a Complimentary Visit to any SeaWorld Park

ORLANDO, Fla. April 29, 2026 – SeaWorld’s three U.S. parks are celebrating Military Appreciation Month with free one-day admission for U.S. military veterans and up to three guests as a thank you for their service. Veterans can register for this offer now through May 10 and have until June 30 to visit SeaWorld Orlando, San Diego or San Antonio with their complimentary admission. Veterans can also receive 50% off a single-day ticket for up to six guests.

Through its Waves of Honor program that offers special pricing and promotions throughout the year for members of the U.S. military, active-duty military and their guests continue to enjoy one-day complimentary admission all year long. In addition, active-duty military receive 50% off a single-day ticket for up to six guests.

"We are incredibly grateful to all members of our military for their commitment and dedication to serving our country," said Marc Swanson, CEO of United Parks & Resorts, SeaWorld’s parent company. "The Waves of Honor program extends a small token of our appreciation to those who are serving or who have served. We look forward to welcoming military service members, veterans and their families for a fun-filled day in one of our parks."

For more than 25 years, the company has been proud to provide complimentary park access to members of the United States military, and as a result, more than 10 million guests – active-duty military members, veterans and their families – have enjoyed free admission through the Waves of Honor program. Whether it's educational animal experiences or thrilling attractions, military families are invited to the parks for a day of family fun.

Eligible U.S military veterans can register for complimentary single-day ticket(s) for themselves and up to three dependents by May 10 at www.WavesofHonor.com. After registering, all tickets must be redeemed by June 30. Service members and their direct dependents must have a valid active military ID to participate.

Any U.S. active-duty military member, including activated reservists and National Guard members, can also take advantage of one complimentary admission for themselves and up to three dependents per year to SeaWorld. Additional discounts and offers are available for active military and veterans through MWR and ITT offices on U.S. military bases and online at www.WavesofHonor.com. These offers are available year-round and may differ by park.

For those veterans and active military who want to visit SeaWorld multiple times throughout the year, a new Military Silver Annual Pass is available. It offers unlimited admission with no block-out dates for 12 months, free admission to popular events, three free guest tickets, up to 20% off in-park discounts and more.
