ORLANDO, Fla. (Nov. 19, 2026) – SeaWorld Orlando unveiled the 2027 Seven Seas Food Festival lineup, featuring 29 full-length concerts at Bayside Stadium from Jan. 30 through May 16, all included with park admission. Flo Rida opens the series on Saturday, Jan. 30, followed by Lonestar on Sunday, Jan. 31. The Orlando lineup is part of SeaWorld's expanded 2027 concert series, featuring more than 50 live shows across Orlando, San Diego and San Antonio.

The lineup spans country, hip-hop, rock, R&B, reggae, reggaeton, pop and K-pop, with performances by Luísa Sonza, Lee Brice, Lil Jon, Shaggy, Gavin DeGraw, Scotty McCreery, Justin Quiles, and EVERGLOW K-pop among the highlights.

Guests looking to catch multiple concerts can take advantage of SeaWorld Orlando's limited-time Black Friday Sale. Annual Passes start at $14.25 per month, and Fun Cards are available for $104.99 during the sale. Annual Pass benefits vary by tier and may include free parking, complimentary guest tickets and in-park savings.

"You could come one weekend for country and the next for rock or reggaeton, and have a completely different night at Bayside Stadium," said Brad Gilmour, Park President of SeaWorld Orlando. "This year, we're also taking inspiration from music as we develop some of the flavors guests will discover around the park."

Beyond Bayside Stadium, the festival will feature dishes inspired by destinations around the world. SeaWorld Orlando will announce the featured destinations and menu highlights separately.

Guests who want a reserved spot at Bayside Stadium can choose from three Reserved Concert Access tiers, starting at $9.99:

- Stagefront Reserved offers the best views in the venue at the foot of the stage, plus access to an exclusive floor bar.
- Up-Close Reserved offers prime views just behind Stagefront, plus access to an exclusive floor bar.
- Standard Reserved offers a reserved seat in the center of the lower bowl with a straight-on view of the stage.

All three tiers include guaranteed concert entry and a dedicated check-in area so guests can arrive closer to showtime. Availability is limited and varies by performance. Details are available here.
