

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

SeaWorld San Antonio Offers 2025 Preschool and Teacher Cards for Free Admission All Year Long

Texas children ages 3 to 5 and Texas certified teachers can enjoy fascinating animals, family friendly events and adventurous rides for free!

SAN ANTONIO, Texas (1-6-25) – SeaWorld San Antonio is offering free admission all year long to Texas preschool children and Texas teachers with its Preschool and Teacher Cards, now available for a limited time. Texas preschool children ages 3 to 5 are eligible for a free Preschool Card. Active and certified Texas teachers can receive a free Teacher Card. Both cards provide unlimited admission to SeaWorld San Antonio throughout the 2025 season and the registration is only for a limited time.

Preschool Cards allow young guests to experience exciting thrills and attractions all year long, including Rescue Jr, the all-new kid friendly play area that will inspire and entertain guests and connect them to SeaWorld's rescue, rehabilitation and conservation efforts. This immersive, hands-on play area will transport young guests into the heart of SeaWorld's animal rescue efforts where they'll tackle immersive rides, including a new roller coaster, train and high-flying swing. The area also includes a new splash pad where children can splash through vibrant water features and bring to life the rescue and rehabilitation work the SeaWorld team does.

Teachers and preschoolers can use these free cards to enjoy all of SeaWorld's amazing educational animal attractions, including the Penguin Encounter, Alligator Alley, Turtle Reef and Discovery Point to learn about animals and conservation firsthand from education staff members and zoological specialists. The Preschool Card holders and their families can also experience a wide variety of kid-friendly annual events with unique features like trick-or-treating and spooky-fun characters at Halloween Spooktacular, millions of twinkling lights and photos with Santa at SeaWorld's Christmas Celebration and so much more.

Parents can register their little ones, ages 5 and under, for a Preschool Card. Certified Texas pre-K through 12th grade teachers with an active teacher ID can register for their SeaWorld Teacher Card using ID.me online. Both cards provide unlimited admission to SeaWorld San Antonio through January 4, 2026. These special SeaWorld offers are available online and at SeaWorld's front gate and are for Texas residents only.

Preschool and Teacher Cards can be upgraded to include Aquatica, Texas' Best Waterpark, for just $38.00. Teachers can add both Aquatica and unlimited parking to their cards for just $81.00 and enjoy the waterpark fun! Preschoolers can romp through Tikitapu Splash, a 15,000-square-foot playground that features 106 new spray-and-play elements, four slides and three giant water-dumping buckets that provide plenty of ways for kids to get soaked. The interactive water playground offers plenty of fun and creative ways for children to enjoy the water and want to come back for more fun. Aquatica, known for having a resort-style atmosphere, is not only perfect for the kids but is also a great place for teachers and parents to relax as they enjoy private cabanas, complete with concierge service, and sunbathe on comfortable lounge chairs all around the park.

SeaWorld San Antonio is open on select days year-round and features plenty of events for everyone to enjoy.

Teacher and Preschool Card holders can take advantage of all this year's events including:

- Mardi Gras –From January 18 through March 2, SeaWorld San Antonio lets the good times roll with its Mardi Gras celebration! A New Orleans-style carnival, complete with beads, live entertainment, French quarter cuisine and more will give guests a place to “let the good times roll!” This celebration features colorful characters, stilt walkers that help make the perfect selfie and amazing sounds of zydeco and jazz music perfect to jam out to.
- Seven Seas Food Festival – From March 27 through May 18, guests can expand their pallet by tasting over 100 chef-inspired dishes from across the seven seas! Parkgoers can take a trip around the world to sample and sip signature flavors from inspiring countries as they embrace the cultural ambiance and festive entertainment all through the park.
- Summer Spectacular – From May 24 through August 10, summer is here! Spectacular summer entertainment will include a new parade with the SeaWorld characters guests know and love and the ever-popular Hydropower Xtreme FX, an award-winning waterski and stunt show with energetic music, jaw-dropping water stunts and electrifying performances.
- Spooktacular – From September 11 through November 2, the not-so-scary Halloween celebrations return with fun and festive kid-friendly parades, trick-or-treating, corn mazes and more! Kids will have a safe place to enjoy the spooky holiday as they get into the Halloween spirit, wear their favorite Halloween costumes, go trick-or-treating and meet Spookley the Square Pumpkin.
- Howl-O-Scream- From September 11 through November 2, only the brave will survive the biggest and scariest Halloween event in Texas. Hundreds of characters come out at night to haunt the souls walking throughout the park. This spectacular Halloween event comes complete with horrifying haunts, spine-tingling pathway performances, specialty-themed bars and more for everyone to enjoy!
- Christmas Celebration - From November 13 to December 31, the park transforms into the biggest Christmas celebration in Texas! With millions of sparkling lights, holiday decorations, festive entertainment and fireside s'mores, there is something to get everyone in the Christmas spirit. For the holidays, iconic members from the North Pole including Santa, Mrs. Claus, Rudolph the Red-Nosed Reindeer and more are in town to share a special meal with guests as they are read Christmas stories and share holiday traditions.
